Minimii's Dollhouse Replicates Arne Jacobsen's Charlottenlund Villa on a Smaller, Yet Grand Scale
 by Desmond Williams, 11/11/09

Fantasy and reality beautifully collide in Minimii's 1:16 scale dollhouse reproduction of designer Arne Jacobsen's 1928 villa in Charlottenlund, Denmark. Designed by Linda Stenberg and Claus Hojer Hansen, the Danish creative directors of Minimii, the dollhouse features a roof and four walls that may be mounted and dismounted, allowing more children to play at once, a small collection of designer furniture (Egg and Swan chairs courtesy of Fritz Hansen) as well as tiny commissioned modern art pieces, and many more chic amenities which stay in place via magnets!

Hoping to shape childrens' penchant for good design by surrounding them in designer style, Stenberg and Hojer Hansen will furnish the dollhouse with the aforementioned furniture, as well as Vipp trash cans, an exclusive miniature art piece by artist Poul Pava, kids play furniture from Bobles, kitchens and bathrooms from Design by Us, and lighting from Normann Copenhagen! They are also collaborating with the famous doll maker, Maileg, to create the very fortunate, design savvy family who will live in the miniature Jacobsen home.

In addition to providing kids with an amazing dollhouse and all the furnishings, the Minimii team offers, "We want to talk to adults who have an interest in design and who see the dollhouse as a design object in itself."

Minimii, we hear you!

See this fabulous dollhouse compared to the original house that inspired it here. As well as some more information about price and availability:
